THE CHELSEA
LINE-UPS—P.3

Kovacek, the Croatia goalie, has the ball in safe hands. He's just taken it from Crabbe, the Trieste forward. Becsi and another Croatia defender are also in the picture.

de Bruyckere out

Lions, struggling on the bottom of the State League ladder, have dropped a bombshell by replacing their coach Mike de Bruyckere.

They have also placed ace goalie Deiter Voigt and crack goalscorer Kurt Beinroth on the transfer list.

The other first team players — full back Joe Marth and wing half Landherr are also up for sale.

Former Polonia and Victoria player Stan Flekan, who is on the management committee of Lions Soccer Club, has taken over the coaching position temporarily.

Relations between the club and De Bruyckere had been at straining point for some time following the management's refusal to include the former Dutch international in their senior line-up.

Breaking point came last week when De Bruyckere failed to turn up for a friendly game on a Saturday and then failed to appear at the following Tuesday's training session. The club received no apology or excuse for his absence and decided to terminate his contract.

Mike de Bruyckere — or Sjel as he is more widely known — played many times for Holland in full internationals before joining Wilhelmina in 1957.

Recognised by many as the most outstanding player ever to come to Australia he also had spells with Juventus and Melbourne. Now in the twilight of his playing career, he is secretary of the Players' Union in Melbourne, of which he was the founder member.

No idea

De Bruyckere said last night:

"Sorry as I am for the position Lions are in, the majority of the committee have no idea how to run a Soccer club. At times, on match days, as many as seven of them are in the players' dressing rooms, all giving their different versions on how the players should play. And there is no discipline in the club".

Voigt, Beinroth, J. Marth and Landherr were placed on the transfer list following differences of opinion with the club management.

CHELSEA, YOU'VE HAD IT!

Victorian Soccer fans can expect to see Australia score its first win over a British touring team, when it meets Chelsea at Olympic Park on Sunday.

Few matches in Australia's Soccer history have attracted so much interest as this Chelsea v. Australia clash.

Chelsea have not lived up to their English reputation, where they were one of the top first division clubs.

Suggestions that they are "going slow" are unfounded. Coach Tommy Docherty has instructed his players to go "flat out" and win at all costs.

But Australia now has many above-average players good enough to give any touring side a run for their money.

Victorian players Billy Rice, Nigel Shepherd, John Anderson and Archie Blue gave the Australian team a big lift in Sydney at the weekend and they should play a big part in next Sunday's match.

Here's what Soccer News expert Jim Cook says:

The return visit of Chelsea could pull out the biggest crowd of the tour — for a double reason.

Australia's hopes of winning their first ever game against a top-class English representative side have soared after their fine display in Sydney.

DIMMED

And the invincibility of Docherty's teenage side has proved something of a myth so far particularly against South Australia, Victoria and the Australian XI in Sydney.

The Chelsea image has been dimmed greatly with the unavailability of their regulars which has reduced the tour to something of a shambles. To bring this point home, Chelsea fielded seven reserves against Australia in Sydney.

In fact this was the side enbloc which was thrashed 6-2 by Burnley after Docherty had suspended seven players following the Blackpool incident last April.

No-one disputes the Chelsea youngsters on top of their exacting 60-match league and Cup program are tired and weary. It seems that the high pressure tour of Australia has been a losing gamble for a side which in the main lacks experience to cope and fully succeed against the variations of Australian Soccer.

They look a struggling lot compared with Blackpool, Hearts and Everton who were all highly experienced teams.

SPIRIT

The hurriedly got together Australian side not only fight for every ball but can match Chelsea in spirit and enthusiasm.

And at long last Australia appears to have a coach — Tiko Yelasovich — who can obviously get the best out of his players.

However, Chelsea, knowing they have disappointed so far, have as much to win or lose as Australia. From the Australian viewpoint, the game must be treated with cautious optimism.

Australia, robbed of outright victory in Sydney, may find Chelsea in a much more devastating and determined mood on this occasion. And second chances more often than not prove a lost cause.

Gerry Chaldi, the brilliant Hakoah inside right, has just scored at Middle Park on Sunday — and he's flat on the ground. Alex Purdie (left) and Teddy Smith rush up to congratulate him.

Billy's the top "stopper"

By MARTIN ASTON

THERE can be no disputing the fact that Victoria's granite-like centre-half Billy Rice is the outstanding "stopper" in the country.

His masterly tackling and expert positioning enabled him to put a policeman's grip on England's current International centre forward Barry Bridges whenever he made an excursion into the middle.

And his "covering" saved at least three certain goals.

There was no wild kicking as Rice used the ball with judgment in making a clearance to a team mate once he had gained possession.

He must surely be one of the first players chosen when the selectors sit down to pick the World Cup team for the coming games against South Korea and North Korea in Cambodia in August.

Another Victorian player who improved his claims for World Cup selection was the rangy right full-back Nigel Shepherd.

On several occasions one of his long legs would shoot out like a telescope to rob a Chelsea player of the ball when everything appeared to be lost.

Archie Blue fought for every ball right until the finish and is likely to retain his place in Sunday's match but John Anderson is expected to fall by the wayside.

Anderson came into the side for last Sunday's game only after injuries forced the NSW pair John Warren and Brian Smith to drop out of the running.

Warren is a certainty to play as an inside forward in Sunday's match if his arm has recovered from an injury suffered in a car accident while on his way to training last week.

A USTRALIA'S outstanding new coach Tike Yelisevich would be crazy if he changed the defence which played so magnificently in holding the Chelsea attack last Sunday.

The young NSW goalkeeper John Roberts showed a wonderful temperament in his first big match and there is little doubt that he is going to develop into a champion with more experience.

George Nuttall, of NSW, gave such an outstanding display at left full-back that Billy Cook will surely have to be content with watching Sunday's game with the rest of the reserves.

The right half Pat Hughes did a tremendous amount of work in his role as a second "stopper" and left half Les Scheinflug never gave up fighting in his bid to gain a grip on play in the middle of the field.

The former Victorian left winger Jimmy Pearson was the outstanding forward on the field and almost turned Chelsea's former England Under 23 right full-back Marvin Hinton inside out with his clever dribbling.

The right winger Roy Blitz came into his own in the second half and figured prominently in both of Australia's goals.

John Watkiss was not entirely convincing and at times looked to be too slow at inside right but he never gave up fighting for the ball and was on the spot to score the goal which put Australia into the lead at 2-1.

A NOTHER pleasing feature emerging from last Sunday's shock result was Australia has at last found a world-class coach in Yelisevich.

Few people in Victoria would have heard of the school inspector and University languages lecturer who was a leading goalscorer for the famous Partizan club in Yugoslavia.

BACKGROUND TO SOCCER

But you can take my word for it that he is a great coach.

He took no more than an hour or two to win the respect of every member of the Australian squad and he imposed a fairly strict discipline which the player did not resent.

And for the first time in my experience an Australian team went onto the field with a definite plan and a surprising determination to fight for every ball.

FRANK BARBAZZA has been dropped from the Australian Soccer squad and the biggest mystery is how he ever got there in the first place.

It took little more than five minutes last week for Yelisevich to discover that Barbazza is alarmingly out of condition.

Barbazza lost his breath to such an extent that he was forced to stop for a minute or two while the other players continued a series of "wind" sprints.

Hit referee - gets goal

"This was an unprovoked assault which could have led to a serious situation," Mr. R. J. Kelly, SM, told a Greek Soccer player in Box Hill Court on Monday.

Mr. Kelly had just sentenced E. Tsoukalidis, 23, of Young St., West Kew, to seven days' goal on assaulting a referee in a Metropolitan League match at Box Hill on May 1.

Tsoukalidis was ordered to pay £8/18/6 costs.

Mr. Kelly told him: "Players who cannot control themselves should not play."

Mr. Robert Randall, of Waratah Ave., Mordialloc, told the court he was referee at a match between Athens and Box Hill clubs.

"In the second half of the game I saw Tsoukalidis kick an opponent. I ordered him off the field.

"He said, 'Do you mean me?' and when I said yes, he rushed at me and struck me above the eye and on the temple with his closed fist.

Since the incident, Tsoukalidis had been suspended "sine die" by the VSF disciplinary Committee.

Tsoukalidis pleaded guilty to the charge of unlawful assault.

It's a battle for the ball at Olympic Park on Sunday between Croatia's Bot (No. 3), Triestina's Menich (No. 10), Gow (on the ground), Croatia keeper Kovacek and Triestina's Crabbe.

TAX TALK

Players' Union members heard a talk given by a Taxation Department official at Esmeralda Restaurant, Flinders Lane, City, on Monday night.

SLAVIA LOOM AS THE DANGER SIDE

Slavia are looming as the danger side in State League Soccer.

With Laraman and Short proving match-winners on what was once a very weak forward line, Slavia now have the potential to topple most State League teams.

And with Tom Harper likely to return from Adelaide soon and Sandy Jones making a speedy recovery from injury, the Port side will be even stronger.

But the team still to beat is Juventus. Their physical strength and will to win enables them to brush aside most teams. Juventus players can take a knock — and give it back when necessary.

Hakoah are another side on the way up. Little can be said about their win over a weak Lions team, but recent draws with Hellas and George Cross are good pointers to their strength.

George Cross and Hellas do not look championship material and will have to improve if they are to cope with teams on the way up.

Polonia are going through a transitional period but they are blooded several good youngsters and their future is bright.

Wilhelmina are only mediocre and goalie Norm Hobson is saving them a lot of embarrassment — as well as a lot of goals.

Triestina, Croatia and Lions don't look like moving off the bottom.

End this dull play

In an effort to curb dull, defensive play, bonus points for teams scoring away goals — particularly away from home — may be experimented with by the English Football League next season.

Arsenal want a new system of three points for an away win, two for a home win and one for a draw home or away. And a change from "goal average" to further encourage high scoring.

These suggestions were discussed by the League in London last week.

Hellas star is 3 ahead

Australian and South Melbourne Hellas inside forward John Anderson is the outright leader in voting for the Soccer News trophy.

He has 14 votes. Next is George Cross skipper Dod Hodgson, with 11. Hugh Murney, hard-hitting Hakoah defender, has 10 and Alistair Scott, Melbourne's star centre-half has 9.

PROGRESS

14—Anderson (Hellas).
11—Hodgson (G.C.).
10—Murney (Hak).
9—Scott (Melb).
8—Cook (Slav).
7—Janczyk (Pol). Scott (Juv), Chaldi (Hak).
6—Vojtek (Croatia), Roussis (Hellas), Smith (Hak), Jurecki (Pol), Short (Slav).
5—Cameron (Wil), Menich (Triest), Laraman (Slav), Abonyi (Melb), Millar, Molloy (Juv), Fode (J.U.S.T.), McPherson (G.C.).

During season 1907-8, Blackburn and Woolwich - Arsenal finished with identical records in the League.

Out of 38 games they both won 12, lost 14, and drew 12.

They both scored 51 goals, and both had 63 scored against them.

And, of course, they both gained 36 points.

Fortunately, they finished half-way in the League table.

But had they been in the running for the championship honors or relegation it would have been an awkward situation, as there was no provision in the rules at that time for such a contingency.

Now, clubs similarly placed must play off on a neutral ground.

Voigt joined the club four years ago from Fairfield and is recognised as one of the best keepers in the State League. Beiroth, the club's leading goalscorer last season, came to Australia four years ago and joined Prague in Sydney, then came to Melbourne where he joined Richmond. Two years ago Lions secured his transfer for a considerable fee.

Both J. Marth and Landherr have also appeared frequently in the Lions first team.

Lions troubles don't come in small doses. Only two weeks ago club secretary John Vanderloo resigned.

RICE AND BLUE MAY MISS OUT

Decision to play the J.U.S.T.-Juventus State League match at Olympic Park on Saturday is almost certain to cost Billy Rice and Archie Blue a game with the World Cup team against Chelsea on Sunday.

Federation officials met at Soccer House on Monday to discuss whether the league game should be played in view of World Cup commitments.

Both Rice and Blue starred against Chelsea in Sydney last Sunday but they are expected to be too tired after their game against Juventus to play the following day.

This is what Soccer News

man JIM COOK has to say about Saturday's league game:

J.U.S.T. and Juventus should draw the biggest crowd of the season at Olympic Park.

For this is a ready-made top line attraction if there ever was one.

J.U.S.T., in the four and no more, can consolidate their position with a win, while Juventus are dedicated to retaining their 100 per cent. record.

The teams themselves present an imposing contrast.

The aggressors and resourceful Juventus set thrills and fancy work aside in an all-out endeavour to bulge the net.

They are well matched by the ball-playing and studied team work of J.U.S.T. who can on their game produce some of the best Soccer in the State.

All in, this should be a classic. The odds slightly favoring Juventus with their stronger line-up all through could penetrate a J.U.S.T. defence which is slightly shaky at full back.

SWEeper's A SECRET WEAPON!

IN THE San Siro Stadium in Milan they have a secret weapon — and they call him "the sweeper".

His real name is Picchi, he plays left half for Inter but he's so highly thought of by manager, Helenio Herrera, that he's the undisputed boss on the field.

Picchi is fabulous. He's not attacking half back. He stays in his own half of the field but he moves around so fast he can mop up any attack whether it comes from the right or left.

We were just as good as Chelsea

Australia was as good a side as Chelsea last Sunday and a draw was a fair result, inside left Johnny Anderson said when he returned to Melbourne this week.

Chelsea was weakened by star players returning to England, and their young players couldn't fill the gap, he said.

Australia's defence was terrific. Left back George Nuttall, right back Nigel Shepherd and centre-half Billy Rice were outstanding.

Both sides found it hard to pass the 18-yard line, and the goalkeepers had very little to do.

On the controversial goal that enabled Chelsea to draw level six minutes before the end, John said: "Everyone was doing a bit of shoving in the crowded penalty box."

"Goalkeeper John Roberts was definitely fouled, but so were several other players on both sides. It was the sort of mistake that happens every week in league Soccer."

BILL'S AFTER GOALS

Bill Rowley, the 25-year-old Hakoah inside forward, scored a bag full of goals in the Ampol Cup night series.

Roger's the top ref.

Meet ROGER LAMB, Victoria's top referee. Roger, who was praised by Sir Stanley Rous last year, will have control of Sunday's game against Chelsea.

But the net has eluded him in the winter season so far.

Bill looked set for a good year when he piled on the goals in the Ampol Cup series.

Now his place in the Hakoah side is in jeopardy.

Bill has missed several Thursday night training sessions because of a salesman's course he is doing, and this may be affecting his form.

But he hopes, his luck will change in the next few weeks and he will be among the goals again.

He's just completed one season in Australia after coming from Scotland where he played for Falkirk.

Bill's played Soccer all his life, having started with Falkirk High School as centre-half.

He was doing quite well in the game in Scotland but decided to migrate to Australia for the "adventure of it".

Since he arrived last April, Bill has found himself a good job as a technical representative for a city firm.

BY
VILLIERS

He is not married and has no family here in Australia.

Bill was the leading goalscorer in the night games — six goals — and he scored four in the Kennelly Cup games at Middle Park.

TEAM MAN

He won't take the credit for his goals himself. He attributes his record to coach Ollie Norris and the rest of the team.

Bill says he didn't play so well last year because he didn't get any support in the forward line.

Bill said he likes Australia and has no intention of returning to Scotland, although he'd like to go back for a holiday.

He likes playing against

Hellas and George Cross best.

"I like playing against these teams because we like to get their supporters going wild," he said.

TWO GOALS

His best game in the night series was when he scored two goals against Wilhelmina.

The ground Bill dislikes most is at Moreland, and the one he likes best is Middle Park.

What would Bill do if it was in his power to run Soccer in Victoria?

"I reckon the administration of Soccer out here has a lot to be desired. It must be improved.

"I know they are trying to put Soccer into the schools. This is a good thing."

Good grounds help make better Soccer and Bill believes Middle Park is a fine example of what two clubs can do when they get together.

He claims Olympic Park is the best ground in the State and Middle Park is the second best.

Morrie Buckner says...

Although the indignation with which news of the vandalism at the Middle Park Soccer Stadium was received was entirely justified, it is to be fervently hoped that the publicity given to the incident will not inflame passions to the extent that soccer followers will consider any kind of retaliation.

This filthy act of larrikinism could not possibly have been perpetrated by any persons who use sporting or athletic facilities themselves.

Anyone who does use them knows their tremendous cost, both in cash and in the time invested by committees in securing sporting venues from various authorities and then equipping them for a particular sporting activity.

Life-saving clubs, tennis courts, and bowling greens have been similarly damaged in the past. But can you imagine anybody that ever belonged to a life-saving club helping to smash its equipment, burn it down, or loot it? Can you imagine a tennis player or a bowler desecrating a tennis court or a bowling green?

You can't. And the same thing applies to anybody who actually plays Australian Rules or any other football code—he could not possibly be a party to the destruction of club equipment.

Hence you can take it for granted that this particular act was committed by stupid hoodlums with no civilised way to occupy their time.

And if any Soccer follower were to conceive the idea of retaliating by damaging somebody else's property, he would not only be injuring an innocent party — he would be putting himself in the same class as the larrikins who damaged the Middle Park Soccer Stadium.

So I make this plea to Soccer followers — don't allow your justifiable anger to provoke you into retaliation. There is nothing to gain and plenty to lose — there is the possibility of letting loose a chain reaction. This could lead to counter-retaliation, then counter-counter-retaliation, and that could go on ad nauseum and ad infinitum.

WORLD OF SOCCER

They'll play under new rules

SCOTTISH First Division clubs, Hibs and Hearts (both from Edinburgh) are likely to be the first team in the world to play under the new rules recommended by F.I.F.A.

One of the planners of the scheme, Scottish Football Association secretary, Willie Allan, has indicated that the two teams are likely to meet in Edinburgh on June 19 when the F.I.F.A. conference is held in that city.

Representatives of almost every Soccer playing nation will be in Scotland for that meeting and it appears an ideal time to try out the new offside ruling.

LEN YASHIN, the Moscow Dynamo goalkeeper, dubbed the world's number one in that position, recently played a series of games in an international tournament for Brazilian club, Flamengo. For the temporary transfer Yashin got £2000.

But he still remains an amateur Soviet style for officially the Russians said he was merely guesting and it was only expense money. Yashin was voted European Footballer of the Year in 1963.

It's hard to understand what goes on at Ringwood. One of Wilhelmina's most valuable players, centre-half Dick van Alphen, who was reportedly unable to train for several weeks because of a leg injury, was fielded against Slavia last Saturday in the FORWARD LINE.

This was a risky gamble at any time, and more so when Frank Stoffels was available on the sideline. Results — Dick broke down just after the interval, Wilhelmina finished the game with 10 men, and the incident may have cost the club a long delay before van Alphen is fit enough to strip again.

Before crossing to see the last 20 minutes of the Triestina-Croatia game at Olympic Park last Sunday, I watched the Hakoah-Lions match for a while at Middle Park. In one period of 10 minutes, I saw Hakoah's forwards miss what looked like four easy chances to score through poor timing and woeful anticipation.

But the two goals scored by Gerry Chaldi were absolute gems.

For the first, he out-smarted two opponents who were marking him, headed the ball down between them, ducked through, and smashed the ball low into the net.

For the second, he chased a loose job across the penalty area, caught it on the first bounce, and hooked it into the net with a shot across his body at a 90-degree angle.

The Lions looked a sorry group — toothless, clawless, and extremely tame. In the last few weeks, they have lost goalie Dieter Voigt, brilliant forward Rolf Beinroth has quit, and shrewd veteran Sjel de Bruyckere has been sacked.

If I were a member of the Melbourne-Hungaria club, a team with a sterling defence and a weak attack, I'd go after Rolf and Sjel. Apart from the goals they could lay on, they could possibly be just what is needed to bring the best out of Melbourne's youngsters Attila Abonyi, Peter Kurta, Ian Shank, Joe Abonyi, and Jimmy Kasdaglis.

SA DEFENCE STOOD FIRM

From Our Special Correspondent

In an exciting but uninspiring Soccer match on Saturday South Australia held the glamour English side Chelsea to a 2-1 victory.

This was a morale booster for South Australian Soccer but the display of the Englishmen did not come up to expectations.

Despite that they had most of the play they could not penetrate the home defence which relied on an orthodox plan and did not pack their goal.

It was to the credit of the home side that centre half Rosetto came through the game with flying colours.

He refused to be upset by the bustling tactics of the Chelsea forwards.

BASIC MISTAKE

South Australia's forward problem has still to be solved as Basic did not reach the standard expected of him at inside left.

He scored South Australia's goal but it was his mistake in passing back which gave Chelsea the deciding score.

Marton and left back Frank Balter did all that was asked of them and could not be faulted.

Best in attack for South Australia was McKenzie who came on in the second half to replace Roper.

Byrne at centre showed touches of brilliance but lacked pace and support from his left-wing partners.

The youngest player in the home team, left winger Muzyka, tried hard but his lack of experience was evident.

As far as Chelsea were concerned they at times showed some brilliant soccer but when they got within scoring distance failed against the home defence or shot wildly.

Both Chelsea goals were scored by centre forward Osgood.

RAU BACK

Horst Rau, the German inside forward, arrived back in Melbourne after nine months in Germany. He will play for his club Croatia shortly.

He last played for Croatia in the promotion decider against Macedonia in the last league game of 1964.

AUST. XI 2, CHELSEA 2

... And we should have won this

From MARTIN ASTON

To everyone's amazement Australia's prospective World Cup team last Sunday was robbed of a victory over Chelsea.

John Roberts makes an unsuccessful attempt to stop Chelsea's first goal scored by centre forward Peter Osgood in Sydney on Sunday.

But they face a tremendous task to repeat their performance in Sunday's match at Olympic Park because Chelsea will be strengthened by the return of its skipper and key player Terry Venables and the striking inside forward George Graham.

Venables is the player who lies deep and launches attack after attack from the middle of the field.

But the fact remains that our Australian team played magnificently in last Sunday's game and should have won.

Referee Harold Parsons was one of the few people at the ground who thought that Chelsea's second goal scored by left half Frank Upton was a legitimate one.

He did not see the way in which a Chelsea player leapt into the air and fouled Australia's young goalkeeper John Roberts as he attempted to get out and reach the ball in a goal-mouth scramble after a corner kick.

At the time, Australia was leading 2-1 and there were only seven minutes remaining for play.

AMAZED

Roberts stood almost motionless with an amazed look on his face as Upton leapt and put the ball into the goal with the back of his head when Parsons did not blow his whistle for a foul.

The Australian players could hardly believe their eyes and spectators who had seen what had happened hooted angrily.

But Parsons simply pointed towards the centre and took a note in his little book crediting Upton with having scored the goal.

The Chelsea players agreed after the match that they were surprised when the goal was allowed and their outspoken manager, Tommy Docherty, went one further and declared "It was not a goal . . . your goalkeeper was fouled."

Roberts told me later: "Upton, No. 6, grabbed me around the neck and I just stood there waiting for a free kick to be awarded."

"Only the referee did not see the foul," exclaimed a bitterly disappointed Australian coach Tiko Yelsavich.

"We do not want the referee to help us but we don't like him to pinch the game from us."

FOUGHT

The Australian players fought for every ball in more than matching spirit and enthusiasm of the young Chelsea team and foremost of the second half actually looked the better team.

But it should not be forgotten that Chelsea was without Venables and five other leading players because of injury and the tour of Europe by the England Under 23 team.

Australia had taken the lead for the first time in the 30th minute of the second half when Roy Blitz had a perfect through pass to send left half Les Scheinflug racing down the right wing.

Scheinflug cut the ball across the goal mouth and there was the rangy John Watkins waiting near the far post to slip it past the goalkeeper Jim Barron.

But the goal with which Chelsea had opened the scoring in the 10th minute of play was an even better one.

DASH

The move began when Joe Fascione fastened onto a clearance from goalkeeper Barron and made a dash up the right wing before sending a pass to England's current centre-forward Barry Bridges.

Bridges wasted no time in accelerating past full-back George Nuttall and sending a perfectly placed centre across to where Peter Osgood was waiting on the far corner of the penalty area.

Osgood did not give anybody a chance as he sent the ball rocketing into the net with a header.

But Australia refused to become disheartened and drew level when Blitz scored a surprising goal direct from a corner kick.

He carefully placed the ball and sent it curving across to float over the heads of the players and elude the clutching hand of Barron.

Chelsea 2 (P. Osgood, F. Upton) drew with Australia 2 (R. Blitz, J. Watkins).

The teams were:

AUSTRALIA: J. Roberts; N. Shepherd, G. Nuttall; P. Hughes, W. Rice, L. Scheinflug (captain); R. Blitz, J. Watkins, A. Blue, J. Anderson, J. Pearson.

CHELSEA: J. Barron; M. Hinton, E. Harris; J. Boyle, J. Mortimore (captain), F. Upton, J. Fascione, B. Bridges, P. Osgood, J. McCullough, P. Houseman.

RIGHT

Australia's new coach Tiko Yelsavich does not miss a trick.

He came under strong criticism for including the previously out of form NSW right winger Roy Blitz in last Sunday's team.

"I believe in Blitz but he has become too much of a philosopher on the field," explained Yelsavich.

"I have had a talk to him and everything is all right now."

"He will be one of our very best players on Sunday." And Yelsavich was right.

Blitz gave an outstanding display in fitting into the tactical plan and as well as that he scored Australia's first goal and made the pass which resulted in the second one.

DOCHERTY WARNING

Chelsea's outspoken manager Tommy Docherty issued a warning after his team was surprisingly held to a 2-all draw last Sunday.

"Don't kid yourselves about the result," he declared.

"We are without seven of our regular first team and the tour has been badly organised because we have been travelling almost non-stop."

The players who were missing from Sunday's team who would normally play in a League match were Terry Venables, Peter Bonetti, Eddie McCreadie, John Hollins, Bert Murray, George Graham and Bobby Tambling.

"A draw is a good result for the spectators but the important thing is that Australia learns from this match."

It should not be thought that Docherty is squealing because nothing could be further from the truth.

He was the first to admit that Chelsea's equalising goal scored by left half Frank Upton should not have been allowed to stand.

"Congratulations to the Australian team . . . I thought they played a magnificent game," said Chelsea chairman Mr. Joe Mears after the match.

★ A well-known English Soccer commentator discussing the World Cup prospects said: "It will be a cruel joke if Australia qualify for the last 16 and Hungary are eliminated."

Hungary, one of the top sides in Europe for many years are in danger of getting past the qualifying rounds.

CHELSEA'S RECORD

Here is the Chelsea scoreboard:

NSW 0, Chelsea 5.
NSW 2, Chelsea 6.
Victoria 0, Chelsea 1.
WA 1, Chelsea 6.
SA 1, Chelsea 2.
Aust. XI 2, Chelsea 2.

CUP MAY BE SCRAPPED!

STRONG behind-the-scenes moves are going on in Sydney and Melbourne to have the 1965 Australian Cup scrapped.

In its place, at the conclusion of the current League season would be an invitation eight club tournament (four clubs from each State) contesting a competition similar to the night Soccer.

One can foresee plenty of argument against this proposal.

Especially if any of the invited clubs fail to find a "four placing" in their respective leagues.

● ● Rapid rise

CHELSEA have no football history beyond the Football League. They started off in the Second Division and two years after their inception as a League side, won promotion to the First Division.

Wonder what Tommy Docherty said to his struggling side at half time and full time in the Victorian game. For the players would know what to expect.

Beaten 4-2 by Benfica early in the season, Tommy told them they treated the game like a friendly. And all had to report for training the next morning.

Docherty's adage is "Remember — every match is important to Chelsea. The public pay to see a match — not an exhibition."

Chelsea are hot on punctuality. If players are ordered to report for training at 10.30 or 2.30 then they are expected to be out on the field — ready to start at that time.

Last season Bobby Tambling was fined a fiver for reporting late one day.

Johnny Boyle, the Chelsea 18-year-old wing half, joined the Pensioners in an unusual way over three years ago.

Down from Scotland on a holiday with his parents he walked into Stamford Bridge and asked for a trial with one of their boys' teams.

Manager Docherty told him to come back next day. Liked what he saw and signed Boyle on as an apprentice.

Soccer Official Takes up Post

The new Australian Soccer Federation secretary, Mr Ian McAndrew, took up his post yesterday.

Mr McAndrew, 28, is a qualified accountant.

He was chosen from more than 30 nominations at the annual general meeting of the Federation a month ago.

Mr McAndrew came from Adelaide, where he has been living for some years, to take up the post.

He left his native land in Scotland to settle in Australia in 1948.

MR IAN McANDREW

Impressed

Mr McAndrew lived for some time in Sydney and played inside right for the old Eastern Suburbs club in the Protestant Churches' Association.

The president of the Federation, Mr W. G. Walkley, in announcing Mr McAndrew's appointment, said the committee which chose Mr McAndrew had been most impressed by his strength of character and fine scholastic record.

Mr McAndrew has requested a six-month "probationary period" before his position is confirmed.

THE fact that Juventus and J.U.S.T. are playing this Saturday on Olympic Park is a further example that Metro clubs count for little in V.S.F. affairs.

Originally a Metro double header was planned there but the Park Trustees justly believed the playing surface would suffer for the Chelsea game and Metro clubs have been forced to play at Elsternwick with a loss of both home games and financial advantages.

While Metro clubs have been dictated to by V.S.F. we now see State League clubs are able to use this "sacred" Olympic Park. Wearing slippers?

For future progress we hope the M.L.M.C. will act in such cases and, constructively consider co-ordinating such double headers and not leave four clubs individually wondering who is doing what.

Saturday's biggest shocks were Makedonia's fourth draw, this time against an inspired Moonee Ponds and St. Albans' thrashing of undefeated second division leader Fernree Gully.

Box Hill's equaliser against Oakleigh came in the last second.

All clubs will join in wishing Harry Dockerty a speedy recovery in his present illness.

The "Doc" is at the Harvey Memorial Hospital, Muir Street, Kew, and would welcome visitors although there is a 5 p.m. deadline.

After leaders Makedonia and Alexander five-point margin, the remaining 10 teams in Division 1 have a gap of only three points and terrific pressure rests on First Division referees.

Fortunately standards are among the best ever.

The Moonee Ponds goal survived a torrid last 10 minutes including a saved hand ball penalty but the Hungarians, with four reserves playing, fully deserved a point because of their strong first half with the wind.

A great team effort by the visitors against a more talented team playing without heart.

and Walker starring but Box Hill showed they are now the league's fittest team in a great fight back.

Mike Roodhouse was in good form.

Sandringham and Moreland both earned a valuable point after a keen goalless draw which showed the Hammers have recovered their will to win.

Poppell and Grubb both played well in goals.

Both Sunshine and Athena controlled the ball well in an exciting match in which the keen home-sters were 3-1 up until the Greek's late victory.

Athena's inside - right Arthur Genghis scored a fine hat-trick, the equaliser coming in 88 minutes. Sunshine's goals came from Bembow, Melrose and Pocock.

Sunshine's David Liddle may celebrate his 20th birthday with a comeback after a serious car accident this Saturday.

In the Second Division, Richmond and F.T.G. were shocked in upsets, Springvale, without clever forward Paul Rubens (appendicitis) dominated the second half against experienced Ringwood, but Huyen and Jansen in great form until Beasley scored from a late Brennan 35-yard free.

Altona and Waverley staged an exciting win-spilt tussle with the indecisive referee worrying both teams. Herman scored the vital goal.

Altona's new coach is Bill Stevens from Tranmere Rovers.

At St. Kilda last Saturday unruly Olympic supporters caused trouble after the match.

Next Saturday at the Hightett West Recreation Hall, Hightett Rd. (near Bluff Rd.), Sandringham will hold a fabulous dance which you can't afford to miss. A really good band and plenty of good spirits are assured.

Springvale magazine is definitely the best club publication circulating today and all credit goes to Mr. Rubens for his enterprise.

JUNIOR NEWS

By Stephen Kalus

More than 1000 juniors in full Soccer attire will parade on Sunday at Olympic Park before the big Chelsea game.

The youngsters from all over Victoria with their officials will assemble at the Olympic Swimming Pool and march before the crowd just before the start of the game.

Also a junior match of selected under 14 teams between South of the Yarra and the Western Districts has been arranged.

South of the Yarra team: Vanderlaak (Bayswater), Dr. Hammond, Witkowski, Drzewowski (Dandenong), Feenspra, L. Pongho, A. Pongho, Laifon, Davidson, Clark (Wilhelmina), Wallas, Taylor, Agardi, Simon (Wilhelmina), Gaudi (Slavia) and Carruthers (Frankston).

After five rounds of competition of the South of the Yarra the following teams are leading: Under 12 — Melbourne, 14 — Melbourne, 16 — S.M.-Hellas, 18 South — Hakoah, 18 East — Dandenong.

Some of the games already played were not reported to the Federation and a lot of fines are expected as a result for not sending team sheets.

The 3rd grade competition which is run by North of the Yarra is well on the way.

Wilhelmina, Hakoah-Ajax and Melbourne are the top teams and next Saturday's clash at Middle Park between Hakoah-Ajax and Wilhelmina will decide the leader as both teams have won all their games.

The Junior Cup competition in all age groups will start next Saturday. All results must be telephoned between 2 p.m. and 3.45 on the day of the game. PHONE 393 1522.

● This week in Melbourne. Schoolboy Australian Rules Football championships. Teams had such names as Kozlowsky, Solyk, Manczak, Rachinieski, Bruinhout. They were best players, too. Makes me think we're missing out badly in our recruiting campaign for the round ball.

NEXT Sunday the Andor Meszaros medal for the best junior of 1964 will be presented by the Governor of Victoria, Sir Rohan Delacombe, before the Chelsea game at Olympic Park.

Andor, Australia's leading sculptor, first introduced the medal three years ago.

I hear there has been keen competition to represent the Under 14 North and South of the Yarra junior curtain raiser teams so the fans should see a good game at 1.20 p.m.

STUTTGART COMING

One of Germany's leading club teams, VfB Stuttgart, will make a "hit and run" visit to Sydney next week for a match against Prahran.

The game will be played at the Sydney Athletic Field on Tuesday night (June 1).

Stuttgart plays successfully in Germany's "Bundesliga" competition and four of its players have won International caps.

The best known players in the touring party are the 32-year-old goalkeeper Gunter Sawitski, who played in the World Cup series in Chile in 1962, and the forwards Erwin Waldner and Rolf Geiger, who between them have won 19 International caps for Germany.

The Stuttgart touring party will arrive from Hong Kong on the morning of the game and will leave on the following morning for Noumea.

Prahran is outlaying around £2000 to stage the match but is hoping to make a profit if the weather is not too cold.

Northcote City needs under 14 players. Parents should send their boys to Main Park, St. George's Road, or contact M. McGiven, 152 Horst St., Brunswick.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

SIR, — I would like to congratulate Mr. Stewart Beaton for his great comment he gave about the future of Soccer in Australia, especially in Victoria, when he was interviewed during Sports Report on H.S.V. Channel 7.

Also I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Beaton for the hard work he has done to keep things in excellent order in all the past years he has put in as secretary. I hope that the V.S.F. will find the right person to replace him.

I think it is time for clubs' committees, especially State League, to wake up and stand over their players who are dominating their clubs, and cut out the business of "give us more money, or so called 'bids' or we won't play. Why don't clubs spend their money in bringing good coaches from overseas to teach their juniors, instead of bringing over here old players, or no-hoppers.

R. SALIBA (Mayfield St., Coburg).

SIR, — Regarding your article by Mr. J. Cook about U.S.C. Lions, I would like to point out some facts.

Firstly, regarding Montgomery Park. It should be mentioned that Mr. K. Schafneutte was president during the time of acquisition of this ground and he advanced quite a sum of his private means. He also was made an honorary member of U.S.C. Lions, which was not mentioned in your article.

Another hard-working member was and still is Mr. E. Lasorko. He was, with others, one of the founders of U.S.C. Lions. Mr. Lasorko also donated a substantial sum towards the ground.

Now about the place on the State League Ladder. The only time U.S.C. Lions was on 8th position, Mr. J. Feller was team manager and selected the players in conjunction with the coach. Mr. Feller had a sound knowledge of the abilities of each player and placed them in the positions most suitable to each player.

From results this year, whoever selects the team now has absolutely no idea how Soccer should be played and that players should get used to each other in their individual position and not changed around at every game.

I would not like to see Lions relegated at the end of this season, but if there are no drastic changes made immediately regarding the management, I see Lions playing in 1st Division next year.

(Mrs.) R. FEILER (Elwood).

SIR — Mr. Harrison should be complimented on the way he refereed the Springvale-Ringwood game. These two teams are old rivals and under the conditions the game could have easily got out of hand.

From the beginning the players felt that they could not get away with anything outside the rules. He was firm in his decisions, especially with the off-side rule and throw-ins.

Congratulations to Springvale on their fine win.

— Tony Noy (Ringwood United coach).

Vandals hit Middle Park

When the cat's away—the mice do play.

That's what happened on Friday night when Middle Park caretaker Reg O'Brien was away for supper.

Vandals chopped down goalposts, burnt parts of the stand and painted anti-Soccer slogans.

But the Federation and Olympic Park Management Committee came to the rescue.

They erected new posts in time for Hakoah's game with Lions on Sunday.

Men who put up the posts were Bruce Wellington, Lou Schembrie, Jack Pollard, the Hamilton brothers and Mr. Crossly.

ALAN'S BACK

Alan Villers, the Hakoah wing half, or inside forward has returned to Melbourne after a nine months' stay in Scotland, where he played several games for Scottish second division club Montrose.

POOLS GUIDE

One of best perms for the small investor is the Full Cover Perm — with 8 from 11 with all draws counting on the Treble Chance.

Here is the cover. Choose any 11 matches from the Treble Chance which you think will be draws. Mark each with an X in any one column and write the following instructions alongside: "Full Perm 8 from 11 equals 165 lines at one farthing equals 3/5 farthing staked."

If you have 11 draws you would win the staggering total of 165 first dividends, with 10 draws you win 45 first dividends, with nine draws correct you would win nine first dividends and if you correctly forecast eight you would have to be content with one first dividend.

BEING impolite to the referee doesn't pay as keeper Jo Jongbloed of D.W.S. of Amsterdam, recently found out.

During the game with Ajax, the inside-forward of that side, Benny Muller, complained to the ref. that Jongbloed had made an obscene gesture to him.

The referee, who didn't see anything, reported the incident. The F.A. fined Jongbloed £20 together with a three-week suspension.

WEST HAM WIN 2-0

LONDON, Wed. — West Ham United of London won the European Cup Winners' Cup at Wembley tonight, beating TSV Munich 1860 of Germany 2-0.

West Ham, the English cup winners of 1964, completely outplayed the Germans and should have won by more.

They not only twice hit the upright with the Munich goalkeeper beaten but they missed at least four open goals.

It was not until the 69th minute that West Ham took the lead with a goal from right-winger Alan Sealey.

Two minutes later Sealey scored again from close-in, following a free kick.

An estimated 100,000 people saw the match.

WILL OUR CAMBODIA TRIP BE NECESSARY?

SO much doubt seems to exist about both North and South Korea taking part in the World Cup eliminating round in Cambodia together with Australia that Australia could line up in the final 16 of the World Cup in England without playing a match.

For it's been stated, repeatedly in authoritative quarters in Australia that so far FIFA have received no acceptance from North and South Korea that they will take part in the qualifying round with Australia in Cambodia.

If this possibility still exists then the Australian Soccer Federation should strongly press FIFA for a quick decision.

If only for the very reason that it could be a face-saver in the wrangle of releasing players immediately for training and match practice.

● ● He's had it!

READER Otto Hajnel, of Fewster Rd., Hampton, tells me he won't go to Soccer any more. He says he left a warm fire to take an Australian friend and his young son to see Chelsea at Olympic Park. He paid 10/- each for his friend and self and was asked three shillings for his son.

"This is the last time I'll be going to Olympic Park", says Otto. "You see, my son is only five-and-a-half years old!"

Otto is naturally upset because he's used to taking his son to Soccer for free. This of course is the practice with the Victorian Federation. At all their games they allow children and pensioners free admission but the Australian Federation demand 3/- at their games for pensioners and children. And the Chelsea match was organised by the Australian body.

● ● More fireworks

● I hear there will be some fireworks at next month's Federation Council meeting.

This is nothing new of course, but these crackers are all set to EXPLODE!

● ● Good insurance

JUNIOR chairman, Gordon Culbard, together with his Junior Management Committee has introduced an accident insurance scheme for all junior players, which should do away with expensive medical accounts to parents or individual clubs.

The committee after considerable research are sure that this plan, to spread the risk of expensive injuries through professional insurance is a wise move, as individual clubs are not always in the position to meet all demands, particularly in cases of broken limbs and other expensive injuries.

Mr. Culbard, who is an experienced professional insurance representative, has been startled by the difficult financial position of some parents and clubs, who have been placed in a difficult financial position through players' injuries, and along with his committee wholeheartedly seeks the support of all concerned regarding this scheme.

GIVE US THE BEST

AUSTRALIA'S World Cup side must be selected without fear or favor.

And by that I mean the overall capabilities of every individual player in the squad should be carefully examined.

They should be chosen without bias so that the strongest possible side is selected to play Chelsea.

Victoria with six players in the squad — Rice and Blue of J.U.S.T., Mandalis and Anderson of S.M.Hellas and Cook and Shepherd of Slavia, should stand a good chance of fair representation. Especially after the display of all six in the first Chelsea game.

MAKE no mistake, Melbourne is going to be a force again. If not it won't be through any fault of their own. The committee is really trying to build a powerful team.

Already they have four promising juniors in the side and with new boy Frank McCann in attack, as well as McGowan in defence, their future looks good.

Official Andy Kun says "McCann is the best since Jimmy Pearson". And Andy knows a good player when he sees one.

Frank is only 20 and when the club get their new English left winger in about three weeks, we can really expect to see the Hungarian club GO this season.

● Frank Micie, popular J.U.S.T. half back, will leave with his wife for overseas on June 8. Frank, who has represented Victoria more than 20 times, will be a big loss to his club and the State.

● What happened at Olympic Park last Sunday? What a shambles. Nine goals in one State League match and a poor game at that! Come, come! Can't the Fixtures Committee put on a better show? What was wrong with the Melbourne George Cross game as the No. 1 attraction for the week-end?

● Peter Aldis played for 20 minutes for Slavia Reserves on Saturday and then played a full 90 minutes for the first team. Slavia certainly have some tough players!

● Comment after hearing the 2-1 Chelsea v. Australia XI results in Sydney from Slavia team manager, John Oliphant: "What's all this so-called Docherty magic we hear so much about? Does he know his job?"

● Edie Simpson, Slavia reserves captain, played so well on Saturday that it should not be long before he's in the first team.

● Why has the Chelsea tour been a flop so far as the "gate" is concerned? For one reason, we haven't got W. D. and H. O. Wills sponsoring those big TV commercials like they did for the Torpedo tour.

● Lou Gautier (Soccer World) should eat his own words after forecasting another big hiding for the Australian XI in Sydney. Chelsea DID play well and so did the so-called Australian XI. With only one Australian-born player, Chelsea could have been playing England or Scotland.

HERE'S another first for the Victorian Federation. Next Sunday more than 500 juniors will parade before the big Chelsea game.

CROATIA BRING BACK BEGOVIC

CROATIA is all ready to set the Melbourne Soccer world on fire.

They're not happy with their 5-4 defeat by Triestina on Sunday especially after leading 2-0 after six minutes' play.

They were so concerned with their defeat that they called a members' meeting after the game where 200 attended.

The members unanimously decided to do two things:

● Bring back former Croatia president ENVER BEGOVIC, managing director of "Inge" Detective Agency Pty. Ltd., and

● Give new playing-coach DUNCAN McKAY a free hand and be sole selector of the team.

The committee decided to bring out two more top players from Europe to help strengthen the team in their fight to win championship honours.

McKay will be given powers to spend money on top training methods and also to "buy only the best" in his efforts to build the club.

Mr. Begovic has been brought back to help re-organise the club and build the committee into a powerful body like it was a couple of seasons ago.

Speaking of the game on Sunday, a Croatia official said: "It was shocking. We can't understand what went wrong."

"The standard of refereeing was not the best and our players had not settled."

"With another game or two with McKay at the helm, we will be a strong force — one that will be feared by all State League clubs," he said.

Whatever Croatia do it seems that they have one ambition — to stay in the State League this season and to finish as near to the top as possible.

And by the way they're going about it, we can expect big things in the next week or two.

● ● Wake up!

IT'S time some of our State League clubs brushed up their administration. Again lack of snap decisions and understanding lost valuable publicity for the Olympic Park game last Sunday because one club couldn't make up its mind whether to obey an ASF ruling and send two of its players to Sydney for the Australian squad practice.

I ask you, is this the way to encourage supporters and promote the round-ball game?

HARRY Richmond, former Moreland forward, who played quite a part in Croatia's promotion last season has been forced to give up the game.

Recurrence of a knee injury following a recent accident is the reason for his quitting.

But Harry will continue to coach Croatia's juniors and needs players for the Under 12 and Under 16 teams.

Any boys interested should ring him at 68 6851 (day).

● ● Wait for it!

● Ten applications were received for the position of secretary to the Victorian Federation. An appointment will be made after the Chelsea tour.
